

Expertise.

The Faculty of the College of Social Sciences and Public Affairs has critical expertise in areas that impact Idaho, the nation, and the world. Individual faculty members have published books and articles and received grants on a wide variety of topics:

Local and Regional Issues

- Idaho
- Intermountain West
- U.S. West
- Snake River Plain

Urban Affairs

- Public Works
- Urban Rural Divide
- Land Use
- Transportation Infrastructure
- Urban Environment

Cultural and Historical

- Civil and Human Rights
- Faith Based Organizations
- Gender
- Native Americans
- Peace Issues
- Race and Ethnicity
- Religion

Economic Activity

- Economic Freedom
- Economic Growth
- Microenterprise
- Public Finance
- Budgeting
- Workforce Retraining

Organizational Management

- Conflict Management
- Organizational Change
- Virtual Teams
- Community Collaboration
- Public Personnel Administration
- Program Evaluation

Education

- Bilingual Education
- Early Childhood Education
- Head Start

Environment

- Climate Change
- Flood Control
- Land Use
- Forestry
- Watersheds
- Fire Control
- Energy

Health

- Child Welfare
- Drug and Alcohol Abuse
- Alternative Medicine
- Depression
- Domestic Violence
- Gerontology
- Suicide
- Tobacco Use

International

- Border Policy
- Globalization
- International Relations
- National Security
- Terrorism

Politics and Policy

- Capital Punishment
- Drug Courts
- Antiquities Act
- Hate Crimes
- Homelessness
- Neighborhood Safety
- TANF
- Forensics